The first race resulted in something like a surprise, for Young Duke was looked upon as a cerprince, for long but was not a certainty. He was not even placed, Brown Charlie winning easily, with Detence second. There was some talk of an objection to the latter, on the ground of insufficient description. He is the horse Stin, which name should have been given. Mr. Wheatir, showever, decided that as no profest was made before the race he was allowed to start. FIRST RACE.

Littlewood running nicely to the music of was twenty miles better still. Littlewood to day scored 256 miles at that bour, and had covered 9456 miles in the twenty-four hours ending them. But Littlewood was in fine condition and is a faster man than Albert, everything eise being equal.

At midnight on the third day of his race Rowell had covered 3555 miles, and Albert scored 358 miles at the seventy-second heur.

cored 348 miles at the seventy-second hour. There is little hope that Littlewood can equal this, but it should be borne in mind that Fitzgerald's record was not as good as either of these until the fifth day. He first touched the record at the 110th hour. Jimmy Albert did not touch the record until the seventyanth hour.

terday, and on Monday he was all out of condition, but this morning he was in fine trim, and kept up his graceful lone for many miles. The second day of a go-as you-please is always the hardest one on the pedestrians, and those who do not succumb during Tuesday generally stay until the finish.

Jack Hughes's lame foot caused him much trouble yesterday, but seemed dead to pain to-day, and he ran with the same indifference to-day that has always been his character-

In the fifty-sixth hour Littlewood increased his lead on Hughes by nearly a mile, and Herty was nearer Hughes at the finish of this hour by six laps.

At this hour in the last race Herty scored 263½ miles. He lacked four miles of that record to-day, but was in better condition, and with good sleep behind him.

Cartwright was officially declared a "stiff" and his score placed in the sepulchre at 7 o'clock this morning. Saunders sent word at 9 o'clock that he would not return.

Careful scrutiny of Lepper Hughes as he labored around the ellipse discovered that he was breathing heavily early in the day and that he favored his game leg in running. Experts shook their heads and said that if Hughes's trainers permitted him to go to sleep they would never be able to arouse him again.

Old Sport Campana is the wonder of this race. He says: "I am sixty-two years old, and I lawen't got a tooth in my head and only a few hairs on it, but I'm here for sport, and don't you forget it."

Dan Herty is proclaimed as the coming man. He is working to a schedule of five and a half miles an hour, and nothing tempts!

him to increase that speed. When Hughes, Littlewood and Guerrero have broken them-selves all up by spurting, Herty, still far behind, will be in good shape and continue on his schedule to the finish. The advance of Herty to the front may not come in twenty-four hours, but it will surely come, say the knowing ones.

twenty-four hours, but it will surely come, say the knowing ones.

In view of this expert testimony, it may be interesting to review Herty's work. He covered 123 miles 4 laps in the first twenty-four hours and 101 miles 5 laps in the second twenty-four hours. From midnight to 9 o'clock this morning he went 29 miles 3 laps. He had had six hours' sleep in two naps, and had, of course, spent some time in his hut for rubbing and in eating. His condition was excellent this morning. ing. His condition was excellent this morning. He travelled in the same manner in the February race, going 582 miles and receiving

In the fifty-ninth hour Littlewood ran in In the fifty-ninth hour Littlewood ran in splendid style. He gained in his lead over Hughes a mile and hve laps, making his lead at 11 o'clock nine miles. But he was still six miles slower than Albert at the same hour. Herty gained a mile and a half on Hughes, but lost two laps to Littlewood.

A man fell in a whiskey fit in the centre of the big pavilion at eleven o'clock, the third case of the kind during the race.

Thus Littlewood was behind Albert's record to-day seven miles. Herty's score was not so good as that made by him against Albert by five miles.

At the sixtieth hour (noon) on Wednesday Albert had scored 288 miles 6 laps in the February race: Herty covered 273 miles 3 laps, and Guerrero 278 miles 1 lap.

ISPECIAL TO THE WORLD, 1 ATRLETIC BASESALL GROUNDS, PHILADELPHIA. Umpire Ferguson adopted Gaffney's scheme

Umpire Ferguson adopted Gaffney's scheme of rendering decisions from a position back of the pitcher when men were on bases.

Stovey opened the game with a hard bit to Pinkney which the initer couldn't handle. Larkin was sent to first on balls. Poorman's foul fly was captured by Dave Orr. Sullivan's grounder was taken in by Pinkney, who touched third, forcing out Stovey. Gleason closed the inning with a dickey fly to Smith.

Brookiyn did considerably better. Pinkney reached first on a fumble by Gleason, advanced to third out two passed takes, scoring on McGleilan's single. Mac went to third on Grr's single, the batter taking second on the throw in. Both men counted on O'Brien's single. Foutz hit safely to right and was trown out at second. O'Brien sandling like a rock on third. Smith was retired by Seward and Radford flied to Weich. Three rims. For the Athletics, Welch was thrown out by Pinkney. Bauer made a bit, but was doubled up with Townsend on the latter's drive to Smith. For the visitors, Caruthers and Bushong were thrown out at fix by Gleason and Seward, Pinkney was safe on Bauer's inmole, and McGleilan and Orr followed with scratch hits, filing the bases. Orr smashed the scheme by being caught napping off first by Townsend's good throw to Larkin. No runs.
